If you do not redeem the Vehicle, we will, after giving notice to you and any other party entitled thereto, dispose of the Vehicle in a commercially reasonable manner, which may include either a public sale or a private sale. It is agreed that 10 days' notice of any such sale shall be reasonable. The proceeds of the sale, less allowed expenses, will be used to pay the amount still owed on this Contract. Allowed expenses are those reasonable expenses incurred as a direct result of retaking the Vehicle, holding it, preparing it for sale and selling it. In addition, if we hire an attorney who is not our salaried employee to collect what you owe, you agree to pay reasonable attorney's fees and court costs. If the proceeds of the sale, less allowed expenses, are not sufficient to pay the net amount still owed on this Contract, then, to the extent permitted by law, we may recover the deficiency with interest at the Annual Percentage Rate from you or anyone who has succeeded to your obligation. If there is money left over (surplus), it will be paid to you or whoever else is legally entitled to it. If, during repossession of the Vehicle, we come into possession of any property which is not security for this Contract, we will hold it for you. If you do not claim the property within 30 days after we have repossessed the Vehicle, we may
